
ARTS AND CULTURE

The Arts and Culture Program provides for the support and operation of arts facilities and support of artistic programs for Durham citizens. This program includes the daily operation and management of the Durham Arts Council Building, the Carolina Theatre, and the Hayti Heritage Center. Support is also provided for major arts and cultural institutions, non-profit arts organizations that provide services and arts experiences that contribute significantly to the quality of life.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Arts and Cultural Facilities $1,343,580

The Carolina Theatre of Durham, Inc. operates, manages and programs the Carolina Theatre for the City of Durham. The Durham Arts Council operates, manages and programs the Durham Arts Council building for the City of Durham. In addition, the Arts Council provides arts-based educational opportunities to Durham citizens and provides support services to artists and arts organizations. St. Joseph's Historic Foundation operates, manages and programs the Hayti Heritage Center (privately owned) as a cultural institution exploring the African-American experience.

Arts Organizations $103,950

The City received request from various non-profit arts agencies outlining various services that the organization proposes to deliver to City residents. Due to budget restraint, only those agencies's that closely tied to Council goals and priorities, and meet all screening criteria were funded.
